

Poll Worker Training 103

FORMS, HOW AND WHEN TO USE THEM

June 10, 2025

Welcome to Poll Worker Training 103

Forms, how and when to use them

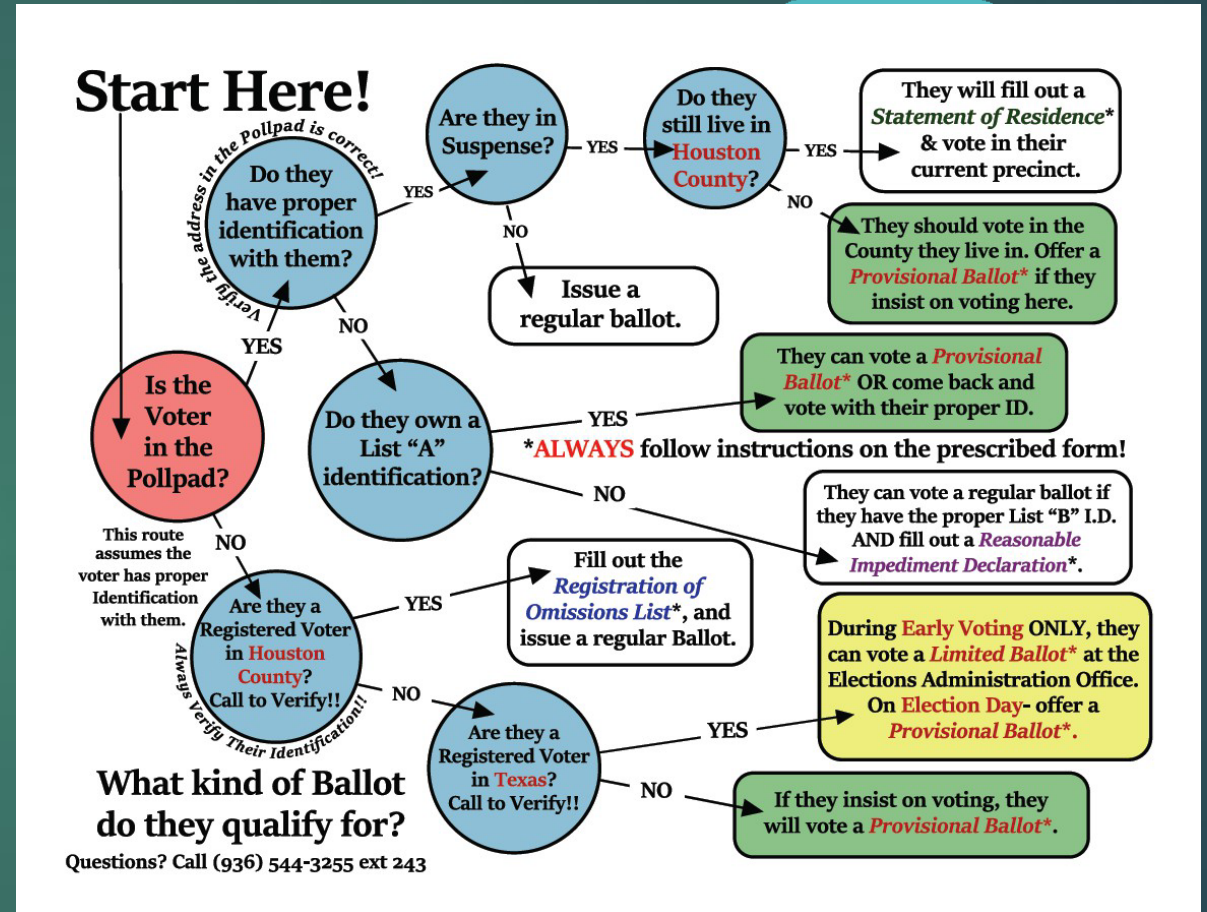

The goal of the Carson County Elections Department is to provide you with the training necessary to feel confident while working the polls. To do this we are always trying to come up with innovative tools to assist with that goal.

Our Decision Tree is one of those tools.

To ensure the integrity of each election, all election workers must be thorough, accurate, and attentive to the details involved in processing voters. To do this you must have a good grasp on all of the forms available to you, what they are used for and how to use them.

In this lesson we will be reviewing each of the forms mentioned on our Decision Tree, including:

- ▶ Statement of Residence
- ▶ Provisional Ballot Affidavit
- ▶ Reasonable Impediment Declaration
- ▶ Registration of Omission's List
- ▶ Limited Ballot

STATEMENT OF RESIDENCE- Change of Address

When checking in a voter on the Poll Pad you will first scan their acceptable ID.

It is important to remember you should not compare the address on any ID to the address in the Poll Pad.

They DO NOT have to match.

However, you are required to confirm with the voter that the address on the list of registered voters is correct. (§63.0011)

You can do that by asking the voter “Do you still live on Main Street?”

Or by turning the Poll Pad towards the voter and asking “Can you confirm this address is still correct?”

If it is not, then you will have the voter update their registration record using a Statement of Residence.

STATEMENT OF RESIDENCE- Suspense Voter

Occasionally you will come across a Voter whose registration has been placed in Suspense.

This can happen for several reasons, some examples are;

- ▶ The Voter Registrar had mail returned to them after trying to contact the voter.
- ▶ There is an error with the address in our system.
- ▶ Their address is incomplete.

Before allowing the voter to vote have them fill out a Statement of Residence.

Always confirm that their residence is still in Carson County.

If not, they should be guided to voting in their current county of residence.

If they insist on voting in Carson County they must vote a Provisional ballot.

Provisional Ballot

In 2002, the Help America Vote Act required that provisional ballots be offered to:

1. Any voter that declares that they are a registered and eligible voter of the precinct in which they are appearing; and
2. Any voter whose eligibility is called into question by an election official, e.g. shown to have voted early by mail. Provisional Ballot is issued when a voter is not eligible to vote a Regular Ballot.

52 U.S.C. § 21082

Texas law echoes the Federal requirements, but also adds that a voter may vote provisionally if they do not have the required photo identification. Tex. Elec. Code § 63.011

Provisional Ballot

If a voter is not eligible to vote a regular ballot, a Provisional Ballot MUST BE OFFERED.

The voter's record will be reviewed by the Ballot Board and only the Ballot Board can determine if the ballot will be counted.

If no Photo ID (List A or B) was presented, the voter must appear with-in 6 days AFTER Election Day to present Photo ID or exemptions.

Provisional Ballots are available during Early Voting & on Election Day at all polling locations in the county.

Why are provisional ballots important? By casting a provisional ballot, even if it's not accepted for counting, the person will become a registered voter.

Provisional Ballot

Any voter who requests a provisional ballot should be given one.

NO voter should ever be refused a provisional ballot!

Provisional Ballot

A provisional ballot must be offered to:

- 1) A voter who does not provide an acceptable form of identification.
- 2) A voter whose name on their identification is not substantially similar to the name on the OLRV.
- 3) A voter whose identity cannot be verified by the identification presented.
- 4) A voter who has received a disability exemption, but does not have a voter registration certificate indicating such exemption.
- 5) A voter whose name does not appear on the list of registered voters and does not have a registration certificate, but states they are a registered and eligible voter of the precinct.
- 6) A voter who has applied for a ballot by mail, but has not yet properly cancelled the mail ballot application.
- 7) A voter who votes during the polling hours that are extended by a state or federal court.
- 8) A voter who is registered to vote but attempting to vote in a precinct other than the one in which the voter is registered.
- 9) A voter who is on the precinct list of registered voters, but whose registered residence address is outside the political subdivision for which the voter is seeking to vote.
- 10) Other _____(with an explanation).

Provisional Ballot

If a voter fits into one of the previous categories, the election worker shall inform the voter of their right to cast a provisional ballot.

If the voter does not appear on the list of registered voters, the election worker may assist the voter in determining if they are registered in another precinct, by using the Poll Pad, or calling the Elections Administration office.

If the voter can not be found but believes they are registered, the election judge MUST ask if the voter registered, or updated their registration, through DPS.

If voter went to DPS, the election judge must note this and the approximate date that the voter went to DPS on the back of the green 'Affidavit of Provisional Voter' envelope.

Provisional Ballot

Polling Place Procedures (1 T.A.C. 81.173)

If the voter does not appear on the list of registered voters, the election worker should inform the voter that the ballot will be counted if it is determined they are a registered voter of the precinct.

If voter is casting a provisional ballot due to lack of an acceptable or supporting ID, the election worker should inform the voter that the ballot will only be counted if the voter appears at the Voter Registrar's Office and shows acceptable ID (List A or List B), or executes a temporary affidavit (if applicable) or permanent exemption (if applicable).

Affidavit of Provisional Voter

After notifications, but PRIOR to voting

1. Voter should complete a green envelope on the front side.

2. Election judge should complete their portion on the reverse side, and sign it.

NOTICE TO PROVISIONAL VOTER

A determination whether your ballot will be counted will be made by the early voting ballot board after the election. A notice will be mailed to you within 30 days of the election at the address you provided on your affidavit to vote a provisional ballot indicating either (1) that your ballot was counted or (2) if it was not counted, the reason your ballot was not counted.

If you are voting in the correct precinct, in order to have your provisional ballot counted, you will be required to visit your local county voter registrar's office (information below) within six days of the date of the election to either present one of the below forms of photo ID OR submit one of the temporary affidavits addressed below (e.g., religious objection or natural disaster) without an acceptable form of photo identification in the presence of the county voter registrar OR submit the paperwork required to obtain a permanent disability exemption. The process can be expedited by taking this notice with you to the county voter registrar or at the time you present your acceptable form of photo identification (or execute your temporary affidavit or provide your place work for your permanent exemption); however, taking this notice is not a requirement.

- Acceptable Forms of Photo Identification
 - Texas Driver's License issued by the Department of Public Safety (DPS)
 - Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
 - Texas Personal Identification Certificate issued by DPS
 - Texas Handgun License issued by DPS
 - United States Military Identification Card issued by DPS
 - United States Citizenship Certificate

With the exception of the U.S. citizenship certificate, the identification must be current or, for voters aged 58-65 years, have expired no more than 4 years before being presented for voter qualification at the polling place. A person 70 years of age or older may use a form of identification listed above that has expired if the identification is otherwise valid.

Reasonable Impediment Declaration: If you do not possess one of the forms of acceptable photo identification listed above, and cannot reasonably obtain such identification, you may execute a Reasonable Impediment Declaration and present a copy or original of one of the following supporting documents: (1) a government document that shows your name and an address, including your voter registration certificate; (2) current utility bill; (3) bank statement; (4) government check; (5) paycheck; or (6) a certified statement from a U.S. state or territory birth certificate or (b) a document confirming birth admissible in a court of law which establishes your identity (which may include a foreign birth document).

The address on an acceptable photo identification or a supporting document does not have to match your address on the list of registered voters.

During the cure period, voters with a disability may apply with the county voter registrar for a permanent exemption to presenting or presenting acceptable photo identification or following the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure in the county. The application must contain written documentation from either the U.S. Social Security Administration evidencing the applicant's disability, or from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs evidencing a disability rating of at least 50 percent. The applicant must also state that before does not have a form of identification described by Section 63.011 of the Texas Election Code. Those who obtain a disability exemption will be allowed to vote upon display of their voter registration certificate reflecting the exemption.

PERMANENT EXEMPTION

TEMPORARY EXEMPTION

During the cure period, a voter may apply for a temporary exemption at the county voter registrar's office for voters who have a consistent religious objection to being photographed OR who do not present an acceptable form of photo identification listed above or follow the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure because of certain natural disasters as declared by the President of the United States or the Texas Governor.

Affidavit of Provisional Voter

In Houston County a voter votes provisionally on our election equipment so the ballots can be scanned once accepted by the ballot board.

Optical Scan/Paper Ballots:

- ▶ Voter should pick their own ballot from a disarranged supply of ballots.
- ▶ Voter should mark their ballot and then place inside the green secrecy envelope.
- ▶ Voter should place green secrecy envelope into the green Affidavit of Provisional Voter envelope.
- ▶ Voter should then deposit that envelope into the ballot box for voted ballots.

Reasonable Impediment Declaration (RID)

A Reasonable Impediment Declaration is used when a voter has a reasonable impediment to obtaining "List A" Identification. They must have "List B" identification to vote a regular ballot when using the Reasonable Impediment Declaration.

On the affidavit the voter will:

- ▶ Note their reasonable impediment to obtaining an acceptable form of photo identification.
- ▶ State that the information contained in the declaration is true.
- ▶ State that the voter is the same individual personally appearing at the polling place to sign the declaration.
- ▶ State that the voter faces a reasonable impediment to procuring an acceptable form of photo identification.

You may not question the reasonableness of the voter's reasonable impediment.

What if the voter qualifies for a RID but didn't bring supporting ID with them?

If the voter did not bring any supporting form of ID to the polling place, the voter may vote a provisional ballot and “cure” that provisional ballot by appearing at the county voter registrar’s office within 6 calendar days of election day by presenting an acceptable form of photo ID, showing a supporting form of ID and executing a Reasonable Impediment Declaration, or qualifying for one of the exemptions (disability, natural disaster, or religious objection to being photographed).

OR the voter can leave & return to the polling place with their supporting form of ID before the polls close, execute a Reasonable Impediment Declaration and proceed to the voting booth to cast a regular ballot.

When a person is accepted for voting and his/her name is not on the list of registered voters or supplemental list of registered voters, the election officer must add the voter's name to the Registration Omissions List.

- ▶ Voter (with required documentation) with Correct Certificate Who is Not on List: On the combination form, check the box labeled "Not on List 63.006" next to the voter's name. Add voter to Omissions List.
- ▶ Voter (with required documentation) with Incorrect Certificate Who is Not on List: On the combination form, have voter initial the Voter's Affidavit "Not On List 63.006" box (near the voter's signature), and check the box labeled "Not On List 63.006." It is also necessary to indicate on the Omissions List the precinct number as indicated on the voter's certificate. Add voter's name to the Omissions List and check the box labeled "Not On List 63.006."

NOTE ABOUT AMENDMENTS: "Required documentation" refers to acceptable voter ID or documentation showing an acceptable exemption. A voter without this documentation will vote provisionally (unless the voter chooses to return later with documentation).

Prior law at Section 63.007 (Voter Not on List, Incorrect Certificate) is now (with minor revisions) one of two procedures in Section 63.006. Prior law at Section 63.009 (Voter Not on List, No Certificate) is no longer applicable; this voter will vote provisionally

Limited Ballot

Limited ballots are used when a voter has a Texas registration in a county other than their new county of residence.

- ▶ Limited ballots are only an option during Early Voting
- ▶ they cannot be used on election day
- ▶ Personal appearance limited ballots are used only at the main EV location (Chapters 111 and 112)

To vote a limited ballot, a voter must:

- ▶ Be eligible to vote in the county of registration if they still lived there
- ▶ Be registered to vote in the county of former residence at the time the person:
- ▶ Offers to vote in the new county of residence, OR
- ▶ Submitted a voter registration application in the county of new residence and
- ▶ Their registration will not be effective in their new county of residence by election day (Sec. 112.002)

Limited Ballot Procedures Personal Appearance

Step 1: Attempt to verify voter's registration status in new (Houston) county. You must call the Election Office to make this verification.

Step 2: If voter is eligible for a limited ballot, ask the voter to come to the Elections Administration office to complete an Application for Limited Ballot.

Step 3: After the voter completes application, note on the application the district offices for which the voter is entitled to vote.

Remember: The voter MAY NOT VOTE for county or precinct offices. Those races must be marked off the ballot.

If you are having a joint election, it is possible a local entity like a city or ISD might be in the two counties – you'll need to check the boundaries to see if those offices are part of the ballot.

I am a resident of this political subdivision. I have not been finally convicted of a felony or if a felon, I have completed all of my punishment including any term of incarceration, parole, supervision, period of probation, or I have been pardoned. I have not been determined by a final judgment of a court exercising probate jurisdiction to be totally mentally incapacitated or partially mentally incapacitated without the right to vote. I understand that giving false information under oath is a misdemeanor, and I understand that it is a felony of the 2nd degree to vote in an election for which I know I am not eligible. (Soy residente de esta subdivisión política. No he sido definitivamente declarado culpable de un delito grave o si soy el autor de un delito grave, he cumplido toda mi condena inclusive el periodo de encarcelamiento, la libertad condicional, la libertad supervisada, la libertad vigilada, o he sido indultado. No me han determinado por un fallo final de juzgado de sucesiones, ser totalmente incapaz mentalmente o parcialmente incapaz con el derecho de votar. Entiendo que dar información falsa bajo juramento es un delito menor y también entiendo que es un delito grave de 2º grado votar en una elección sabiendo que no cumplo con las requisitos necesarios.)

I understand that this application for a limited ballot will also serve as a voter registration application in this county and that my registration in my previous county will be cancelled. (Entiendo que esta solicitud para una boleta limitada también servirá como una solicitud para registro de votante en este condado y que mi registro en mi condado previo será cancelado.)

Form's Do's and Don't's

DO

Use the Decision Tree to help you decide what forms you need.

Use the instructions provided with the forms.

Verify the address on the Official List of Registered Voters (OLRV) is correct.

Ensure the voter completes the necessary forms for their situation.

Complete your part of the paperwork.

Call or ask for help if you are unsure how to proceed.

Review that forms completed by voters are complete.

DON'T

Tell a Provisional Voter their vote will not count.

You may not question the reasonableness of the voter's reasonable impediment.

Do not deny any voter an opportunity to vote. This is what Provisional Ballots are for.

If a voter is not on the OLRV, don't neglect to call the Election Office to verify where the voter is registered.

Important Take A-ways

Your goal is to apply the knowledge you learn here to protect the integrity of the election process.

To ensure the integrity of each election, all election workers must be thorough, accurate, and attentive to the details involved in filing out forms.

Everyone makes mistakes, but please keep in mind that simple errors can undermine the election process.

We are depending on you to be responsible and reliable. The integrity of the election is a joint endeavor between you, as an election official, and our office.
